COMMEMORATIVE CURRENCY NOTE Rs. 2000

The Central Bank of Sri Lanka issued this Rs. 2000 commemorative currency note to mark its 75th anniversary.

LOOK

1 2

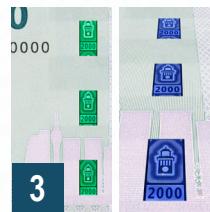

Hold the currency note to the light to see the Lion with Sword Watermark.

See the complete Lion with Sword image in the See-Through security feature when you hold the currency note to the light.

Look for the extra small text hidden in the note's design.

TILT

3

Tilt the note up and down to see the colour change in the security thread from blue to green and vice versa, and see the Colombo Lighthouse Clock Tower and the 2000 in the security thread.

FEEL

4

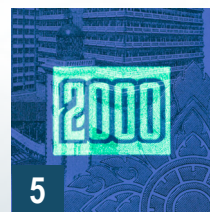

Feel the raised print in the 2000 denomination and Bank's title. Also feel along the six bars with a diamond shape on each bar. This tactile feature helps visually impaired people identify the value of the currency note.

INSPECT

5

Inspect the currency note under ultraviolet light and see the fluorescent dual colours appear in the anniversary theme as well as the skyline on the front.

The denomination also appears under ultraviolet lighting. This feature can be machine readable.
