PRESS RELEASES
August 2010

1. Inflation drops in July for the fifth consecutive month

Inflation, as measured by the Colombo Consumers' Price Index (CCPI) (2002=100), computed by the Department of Census and Statistics, decreased to 4.3 per cent in July from 4.8 per cent in June 2010 on the point-to-point basis. This was the fifth consecutive month in which the Index registered a decline on the point-to-point basis. In July, 2010 the CCPI decreased marginally by 0.04 per cent over the previous month, with the Index decreasing in absolute terms from 217.7 to 217.6. However, the annual average inflation increased marginally to 4.2 per cent in July from 3.9 per cent in June 2010.

The contribution to the monthly decrease in the Index originated mainly from price decreases in the sub categories of Food and non-alcoholic beverages (-0.2 per cent) and Housing, water, electricity, gas and other fuels (-0.3 per cent). Decrease in prices of some varieties of vegetables, fish, rice and gas compared to the previous month contributed towards the downward movement in the above sub indices. Meanwhile, price increases were experienced in the sub categories of; Miscellaneous goods and services (1.3 per cent); Clothing and footwear (0.7 per cent); Recreation and culture (0.7); Furnishing, household equipment and routine household maintenance (0.5 per cent); Health (0.5 per cent); Education (0.3 per cent) and Transport (0.2 per cent); while the prices in the Communication sub category remained unchanged during the month.

2. External Sector Performance – May 2010

Sri Lanka's external sector performance improved in May 2010 reflecting enhanced trade and higher remittances. Year-on-year earnings from exports grew by 15.1 per cent in May 2010 to US dollars 620 million while expenditure on imports also increased by 35.8 per cent to US dollars 1,051 million. Accordingly, export earnings during January – May 2010 increased by 11.6 per cent and import expenditure increased by 42.4 per cent. The trade deficit during this period expanded to US dollars 2,351 million.

Earnings from agricultural exports increased by 7.9 per cent to US dollars 153 million in May 2010, led by the higher prices of agricultural commodities in the international market. Tea prices increased by 13.0 per cent to US dollars 4.44 per kilogram owing to higher demand from the Middle East. Rubber prices reached a record US dollars 3.40 per kilogram, reflecting a year-on-year increase of 125.4 per cent mainly due to the higher demand for natural rubber emanating from China, India and Malaysia. However, in terms of volumes, both tea and rubber exports declined by 6.5 per cent and 47.1 per cent, respectively, in May 2010, the former, due to the strong promotional campaigns by other tea producing countries and the latter, due to the adverse weather conditions in the major rubber producing areas of the country. Earnings from minor agricultural exports grew by 19.4 per cent supported by the better performances by vegetables, fruits, arecanuts, pepper, cloves and essential oil exports. Industrial exports increased by 17.1 per cent to US dollars 458 million led by rubber and petroleum products. Earnings from the textiles and garments sub sector increased by 10.8 per cent to US dollars 263 million while the food and beverages and the machinery and equipment sub sectors also performed well in May 2010.

All major categories of imports increased in May 2010. The largest contribution to this increase was from the intermediate goods followed by the consumer goods. Expenditure on imports of intermediate goods increased mainly due to the higher crude oil prices. The average import price of crude oil was US dollars 84.83 per barrel in May 2010 compared to the US dollars 61.98 per barrel in May 2009. Expenditure on other petroleum products, chemicals and fertilizer also increased over the preceding year. The increase in expenditure on consumer goods imports was mainly attributed to sugar and milk products due to the higher volumes of imports compared to the previous year and the higher prices of sugar and milk products in the international market due to supply constraints. Non-food consumer goods increased mainly due to the higher imports of motor cars and motorcycles. Within the investment goods category, imports of transport equipment and building materials increased sharply, the former, due to an increase in the number of motor vehicles used for the transportation of goods and passengers and the latter, due to the higher expenditure on cement, pre fabricated buildings and wires.

During the first five months of 2010, workers' remittances increased by 13.3 per cent over that of the corresponding period of 2009 to US dollars 1,498 million. The gross official reserves, with and without Asian Clearing Union (ACU) funds, increased to US dollars 5,127 million and US dollars 5,032 million, respectively, by end May 2010. Based on the previous 12 months average expenditure on imports of US dollars 979 million per month, the gross official reserves, without ACU funds, were the equivalent of 5.1 months of imports.

The performance of external trade during the period is further illustrated in the following table.

3. Sri Lanka International Sovereign Bond Issue of US$ 1,000 million in 2010

The Central Bank of Sri Lanka, on behalf of the Government of Sri Lanka, is considering an issuance of an International Sovereign Bond of up to US dollars 1,000 million in the international market. The issuance will be timed subject to market conditions probably later this year.

After evaluation of the proposals received from seven investment international banks, the Government of Sri Lanka has selected three leading international investment banks, namely the Hongkong and Shanghai Banking Corporation Limited (HSBC), Bank of America Merrill Lynch and the Royal Bank of Scotland (RBS) as Joint Lead Managers and Bookrunners for the proposed issuance.

In addition, Bank of Ceylon has been appointed as a Co-manager to work with the three Joint Lead Managers to execute the proposed bond issuance.

4. Employees' Provident Fund has authority to make investments in the Share Market, including the banking and financial sector

The attention of the Central Bank has been drawn to recent claims of a spokesman for a certain political party that the Employees' Provident Fund (EPF) does not have the authority to invest in banking and financial sector stocks listed on the Colombo Stock Exchange. Such claim has also attempted to state that the investments are against the policy laid down by the Monetary Board. As these misleading statements may create confusion in the market and the general public, the Central Bank is issuing this statement.

In terms of the EPF Act, the Monetary Board of the Central Bank of Sri Lanka has been entrusted with the responsibility of managing the Fund as its custodian, while the general administration of the Fund has been vested with the Commissioner of Labour. The overall objective of the Fund in investing its money is to provide a reasonable return to members, while safeguarding and enhancing the value of the Fund. In terms of the section 5(e) of the EPF Act, Monetary Board may invest the moneys of the Fund in such securities as the Monetary Board may consider fit and may sell such securities. Accordingly, the EPF clearly has the authority to make investments in the share market, including the banking and financial sectors.

In keeping with its statutory obligations, the EPF, as Sri Lanka's biggest fund, has provided attractive returns to the EPF members while safeguarding their investment. The banking and financial sector is the largest sector in the Sri Lankan equity market with more than 20 per cent of the total market capitalization. This sector has always been performing exceptionally well and therefore, since 2005, the EPF had invested in the sector with the intention of creating more wealth for the millions of EPF members in the long-term. Presently, the EPF's exposure to the banking sector is around one per cent of its total portfolio. In addition to the banking sector, the EPF has also invested in other sectors including construction and engineering, manufacturing, hotel and travel, telecommunication, and diversified holdings in the Colombo Stock Exchange, and in other instruments such as debentures, mortgage backed securities and selected private equities.

Currently, more than 95 per cent of the EPF investments are in government securities and this trend is expected to continue over the next few years as well. However, if the government were to reduce its fiscal deficit over the next few years (as they have announced), there is a strong possibility that the EPF's options of investing in government securities could diminish to some extent in the medium to long term. In that scenario, interest rates could decline further and hence the returns to the members could reduce proportionately, although such returns may be reasonably above the inflation rate. In that scenario, there is justification for a slight shift towards other instruments which provide higher yields, so that the returns of the EPF are maintained at reasonable levels in the medium to long term.

Since of late, Sri Lanka's stock exchange has been hailed as one of the best performing markets in the world and a massive peace dividend has been generated. In that context, it is the view of the Monetary Board that the savings of the people of our country, which are invested by the EPF, should also have the benefit of this peace dividend. The Monetary Board also wishes to assure the public that, as has been done for more than 50 years in the past, the EPF would discharge its investment responsibilities and duties in accordance with the stipulated rules and regulations in a professional and fair manner, providing a positive real rate of return to all its members while safeguarding the wealth of the EPF.

5. Monetary Policy Review – August 2010

The Monetary Board, at its meeting held on 19 August 2010, has decided to reduce the Reverse Repurchase rate by 50 basis points with immediate effect, while keeping the Repurchase rate unchanged. Accordingly, the Repurchase rate and the Reverse Repurchase rate of the Central Bank would be 7.25 per cent and 9.00 per cent, respectively.

Considering the improving outlook for inflation, the Central Bank commenced easing its monetary policy stance in 2009 in order to stimulate economic activity. While inflationary pressures in the domestic economy have continued to be benign in the recent months, enhanced prospects for domestic agricultural produce have further improved the outlook for inflation. In addition, broad money ( $M_{2b}$ ) has decelerated in the recent months while macroeconomic conditions have remained stable.

Market interest rates have adjusted downwards, although at a slower pace, in response to the easing of the monetary policy stance. Yield rates on government securities in the primary market have declined during the recent months while the prevailing positive outlook for the economy has also made possible, the issue of Treasury bonds with maturities of up to ten years. Other market interest rates have also declined, although certain lending rates are yet to show a full adjustment.

In line with improving economic prospects and the gradual easing of credit conditions, year-on-year growth in credit obtained by the private sector, which turned positive in March this year, increased to 6.2 per cent by June 2010.

Meanwhile, the risk of macroeconomic variables moving in an undesirable direction has now substantially abated. The benefits of the improving macroeconomic structure would also raise the potential of the domestic economy to grow, and such potential should now be provided the space to materialise. The current developments also call for a reduction in the risk premia incorporated in lending rates of financial institutions, thus leading to the intermediation gap between lending and borrowing rates of the banks reducing further. Accordingly, it is expected that domestic credit conditions would continue to ease in line with the Central Bank's policy direction, thereby strongly supporting the revival in economic activity currently underway. The Central Bank expects credit flows to the private sector to gather momentum during the remaining months of the year, alongside the anticipated pick-up in economic activity. At the same time, the expected expansion in credit would serve to reduce the excess liquidity, which has built up in the money market over the past several quarters.

The release of the next regular statement on monetary policy will be on 15 September 2010.

6. Central Bank Celebrates its Diamond Jubilee

The Central Bank of Sri Lanka (CBSL) which commenced operations on 28 August 1950, will be celebrating its 60th year of establishment in 2010. The Diamond Jubilee year marks a momentous milestone in the history of the Central Bank in terms of achieving its focused objectives while contributing to the prosperity of the country.

(b) Wages in the construction sector are paid on both daily payment and contractual basis. The series on contractual basis in previous bulletin publications has been replaced by the series on daily payment basis from the monthly bulletin of December 2005 onwards for comparison with wages in other sectors.

(c) Daily wages up to December 2004 are the average of daily wages for the two activities. From January 2005 onwards the daily wages cover both activities under a single category following the restructuring of data collection schedules.

(a) A series with a wide coverage and 1997 as the base year. In order to accommodate the variability arising from a monthly frequency, in computing the monthly trade indices, first the volume index is computed as a Laspeyres index and then the unit value index is derived as the ratio between the value index and the volume index. This methodology avoids the subjective imputation of prices that would be required in deriving a price index first when certain items are not exported or imported in a particular month.

(a) A series with a wide coverage and 1997 as the base year. In order to accommodate the variability arising from a monthly frequency, in computing the monthly trade indices, first the volume index is computed as a Laspeyres index and then the unit value index is derived as the ratio between the value index and the volume index. This methodology avoids the subjective imputation of prices that would be required in deriving a price index first when certain items are not exported or imported in a particular month.

(a) The above presentation conforms as far as possible to international practice as followed by the International Monetary Fund (IMF), in the Balance of Payments Manual, 5th edition (1993). In addition, beginning 1994, Offshore Banking Units have been treated as a part of the domestic banking system.

(b) Provisional

(c) Exports are recorded on f.o.b. valuation; imports on c.i.f. valuation.

(d) Includes port related services.

(e) Passage collections by foreign shipping agents and airlines are included in passenger fares.

(f) Indicates outright grants received in the form of programme, food and commodity aid, cash and technical assistance.

(g) Indicates outright grants received in the form of project aid.

(h) Credit entries refer mainly to an increase in liabilities resulting from imports under trade credits. The debit entries in respect of such imports are in the merchandise account and are recorded on an arrivals basis. Debit entries refer to a decline in such liabilities and are recorded at the time of settlement of payment for such imports.

(i) The change in capital of the monetary sector is based on local records.

(j) The figures shown in the credit column relate to the increase in liabilities to the IMF arising from drawings from the IMF and the receipts under the Stand-by Arrangement facility in 2009. US dollar and Sri Lanka Rupee values reflect changes in the representative rate of the Special Drawing Rights (SDRs). Figures in the debit column are in respect of repurchases or repayments, made in installments to the IMF, in respect of earlier drawings. Subscriptions to the IMF, consequent to successive increases in Sri Lanka's quota, are also shown in the debit column.

(k) General and special allocations of SDRs by the IMF.

(b) The NEER is the weighted average of nominal exchange rates of the 24 trading partner and competitor countries. Weights are based on the trade shares reflecting the relative importance of each currency in the currency basket.

(c) The REER is computed by adjusting the NEER for inflation differentials with the countries whose currencies are included in the basket.

(d) REER computation is based on CCPI.

(e) The REER Indices for 2009 and 2010 are provisional.

(a) Annualised Forward Premium ( $f^d$ ) is computed using the following formula.

Source: Central Bank of Sri Lanka

$$f^d = \{[F_t^{t+1} - S_t] / S_t\} * 100 * (12/t)$$

Where  $F_t^{t+1}$  is the forward rate for period  $t+1$  that exists in period  $t$  and  $S_t$  is the interbank spot rate at period  $t$ .

(a) This monetary survey is based on the aggregated data pertaining to both Domestic Banking Units (DBUs) and Offshore Banking Units (OBUs) of banks operating in Sri Lanka. Definitional changes have been adopted in aggregating DBUs and OBUs data to avoid double counting and misclassification of assets and liabilities.

The major changes are:

(1) All DBU placements in OBUs are recorded as domestic assets, while all DBU borrowings from OBUs are recorded as domestic liabilities.

(2) Foreign currency deposits of DBUs are classified on the basis of ownership rather than on the basis of currency. Hence, the following apply :

(i) One half (50 per cent) of NRFC deposits are treated as domestic deposit liabilities;

(ii) All RNNFC balances are treated as foreign liabilities;

(iii) All other domestic foreign currency accounts are treated as domestic deposit liabilities.

(b) Includes assets / liabilities of National Development Bank which merged with NDB Bank Ltd., with effect from August 2005.

(c) External assets (net) of the Central Bank and commercial banks (including outward bills).

(d) Currency and demand deposits of the public.

(e) Time and savings deposits of the public held with commercial banks.

(a) This financial survey is based on the aggregate data pertaining to Domestic Banking Units (DBUs), Offshore Banking Units (OBUs), Licensed Specialised Banks (LSBs) and Registered Finance Companies (RFCs) operating in Sri Lanka. Definitional changes have been adopted in aggregating DBUs, OBUs, LSBs and RFCs data to avoid double counting and misclassification of assets and liabilities. The major changes are:

- (1) All DBUs placements in OBUs are recorded as domestic assets, while all DBUs borrowings from OBUs are recorded as domestic liabilities.
- (2) Foreign currency deposits of DBUs are classified on the basis of ownership rather than on the basis of currency. Hence, the following apply:
  - (i) One half (50 per cent) of NRFC deposits are treated as domestic deposit liabilities;
  - (ii) All RNNFC balances are treated as foreign liabilities;
  - (iii) All other domestic foreign currency accounts are treated as domestic deposit liabilities.

(b) External assets (net) of the Central Bank, Commercial banks (including outward bills), LSBs and RFCs.

(c) Currency, demand deposits and quasi money in DBUs in this table differ from those in table 52 due to the fact that LSBs and RFCs are not treated as public under this broad monetary survey (M<sub>4</sub>) definition.

(d) Time and savings deposits of the private sector with commercial banks, LSBs and RFCs.

(e) Credit extended by the monetary authority, DBUs, OBUs, LSBs and RFCs to the Government, net of Government deposits with banks and Government cash deposits.

(a) Under Sections 10c, 93, 94, 96 and 97 of the amended Monetary Law Act (Chapter 422), commercial banks and other financial institutions are required to maintain reserves against their deposit liabilities as prescribed by the Monetary Board. Currently, only commercial banks are subject to reserve requirements. With effect from 24 January 1992, an amount of till cash over and above two per centum of the total deposit liabilities, but not exceeding four per centum, could be maintained as a part of required reserves in the form of Sri Lanka currency notes and coins. Details of required reserve ratios, which were applicable in the past and computational methods have been published in the Appendix table on the 'Reserve Position of Commercial Banks' in the Annual Reports prior to 2003.

(b) Reserve data are for the last reserve week of each month. The required reserves recorded in the table refer to the cumulative reserves for the week, while commercial bank deposits with the Central Bank are the cumulative deposits for that particular reserve week. Excess/Deficit on SRR is the difference between the cumulative SRR for the reserve week and cumulative deposits of the commercial banks for the week.

(c) Excludes interbank deposits.

(d) With effect from 03 April 2003, the basis of computing the Statutory Reserve Requirement (SRR) was changed from deposit liabilities and vault cash balances at the close of business on Wednesday of the previous reserve week, to the average of deposit liabilities and vault cash balances during the week ending Tuesday of the previous reserve week.

Notes :

- (1) Commercial banks charge a variety of fees and commissions on their services. The table gives a range of the maximum and minimum fees and commissions which are based on the information provided by commercial banks. These charges, which do not change very frequently are published semi-annually to enable the public to negotiate best terms. These fees and commissions could be different when services and products are provided as a package.
- (2) These are standard charges of commercial banks. However, charges for some specific products could include charges payable to banks abroad. For example, banks in Sri Lanka may include in their charges fees payable to banks abroad such as for adding confirmation to Letters of Credit, and for correction of discrepancies.
- (3) In the case of Documentary Credits, the charges for outward transmission from Sri Lanka would differ, on the mode of transmission used.
- (4) Loan application processing fees vary according to the loan amount.
