PRESS RELEASES
October 2009

1. Inflation falls further to a five years low of 0.7%

The rate of inflation, as measured by the point-to-point change in the Colombo Consumers' Price Index (CCPI) (2002=100), computed by the Department of Census and Statistics, further dropped to 0.7 per cent in September, 2009 from 0.9 per cent in August, 2009. This is the lowest level of inflation recorded since February, 2004. The annual average inflation rate also continued on its decelerating path observed since November, 2008 and declined further to 6.6 per cent compared to 8.5 per cent in the preceding month.

The CCPI increased marginally by 0.2 per cent over the previous month, with the Index moving upward to 208.6 from 208.1 in August, 2009. The contribution to the monthly increase in the Index arose mainly from the Food and Non alcoholic beverages sub category. The Clothing and footwear category recorded a decrease while the Housing, water, electricity, gas and other fuels, Health, Furnishing, household equipment and routine household maintenance, Education, and Miscellaneous goods and services categories recorded increases during the month.

The Core inflation, on a point-to-point basis, decreased to 5.4 per cent in September, 2009 as compared to 6.4 per cent in August, 2009, and the annual average core inflation declined further to 12.1 per cent in September, 2009 from 13.2 per cent in the previous month.

2. IMF – Stand-by Arrangement: September Targets Achieved

The key targets and structural benchmarks as agreed with the IMF as at end September 2009 were comfortably achieved by the Sri Lankan authorities. The Net International Reserves (NIR) target was well exceeded with gross official reserves rising to US dollars 4.2 billion (equivalent to 4.7 months of imports) by end September 2009. Reserve money was maintained within the targeted level of Rs. 280.4 billion, while Net Domestic Financing (NDF) at Rs.302.5 billion was below the ceiling of Rs.305 billion. This follows the successful achievement of the targets set for July 2009 as well.

The improvements in the key macroeconomic indicators observed since the end of the conflict and the approval of the Standby Arrangement, continued. Inflation continued its downward trend and market interest rates declined further. Yield rates on Treasury bills continued to decline with the 91 day rate reaching below 10 per cent by end September 2009. A marked reduction in relatively long term Treasury bond yield rates was also observed. Meanwhile, market capitalisation in the Colombo Stock Exchange exceeded Rs. 1 trillion on 6 October 2009, and average turnover has been at an all time high.

3. Fitch Ratings revises Sri Lanka's Sovereign Rating Outlook from negative to Stable

Fitch Ratings has revised Sri Lanka's sovereign rating outlook to "stable" from "negative" to reflect the country's positive changes in sovereign credit fundamentals. At the same time, the agency has affirmed the Long-term foreign and local currency Issuer Default Ratings (IDRs) and the Country Ceiling at 'B+', and the Short-term IDR at 'B'.

The increase of foreign exchange reserves to USD 4.3 bn at end September 2009, which is a record high level and the expectation of the reserves exceeding USD 5 bn by end of the year, in Fitch's view, is a substantial lift to the country's external financial position.

The Standard & Poor's (S&P), the other sovereign rating agency, too had revised Sri Lanka's sovereign rating outlook to "stable" from "negative" on 25 August 2009.

4. Monetary Policy Review – October 2009

Worldwide inflation is expected to pick up moderately in the ensuing months with the base effects of last year's high consumer prices driven by the commodity price bubble wearing out, as well as firming demand alongside the nascent recovery in global markets. Nevertheless, inflation in Sri Lanka is expected to be at subdued levels in the approaching months, with current inflation remaining at around 1 per cent during the four months up to September 2009.

So far during the year, market interest rates have gradually declined in response to the monetary policy relaxation measures of the Central Bank, but are yet to adjust fully to such measures. Benchmark yield rates on Treasury bills have declined significantly by around 800 – 865 basis points since the end of last year, by the first week of October this year. The Central Bank expects the downward movement of the benchmark yield rates to permeate to other market interest rates over the coming weeks, further reducing the borrowing costs of economic agents. This, together with the improved outlook for economic activity, is expected to underpin an expansion in credit utilisation of the private sector, thereby supporting enhanced economic performance.

Accordingly, the Monetary Board is of the view that the current levels of policy interest rates do not require any adjustment at the present time, since the policy measures adopted so far are still supportive of the desired outcome of gradual easing of the credit conditions in the country.

The release of the next regular statement on monetary policy will be on 18 November 2009.

5. External Sector Performance – August 2009

The trade deficit contracted for the eighth consecutive month in August 2009 by 76.9 per cent to US dollars 116 million, recording the third lowest trade deficit during the last five years. The cumulative trade deficit decreased by 59.6 per cent to US dollars 1,627 million during the first eight months of 2009 from US dollars 4,032 million in the corresponding period of 2008. Workers' remittances increased by 9.9 per cent to US dollars 2,195 million during this period. As a result, workers' remittances during the first eight months of 2009 were US dollars 568 million (about 35 per cent) in excess of the trade deficit.

Earnings from exports, which took on an increasing trend since April 2009, reached US dollars 710 million in August, recording the highest monthly value thus far in 2009. Although export earnings contracted by 6.7 per cent in August 2009 on a year-on-year basis, export earnings has taken on an increasing trend since April 2009.

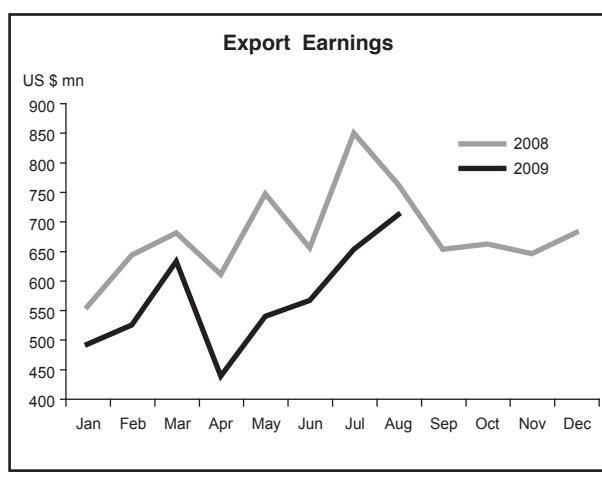

Industrial exports declined by 6.0 per cent due to lower exports of petroleum products, diamonds and jewellery, rubber products and machinery and equipment. However, growth was recorded in the textiles and garments, food and beverages and other industrial exports subsectors. Textiles and garments exports rebounded by 8.5 per cent, year-on-year, recording US dollars 324 million in August 2009, recording the highest earnings by the sector during the year.

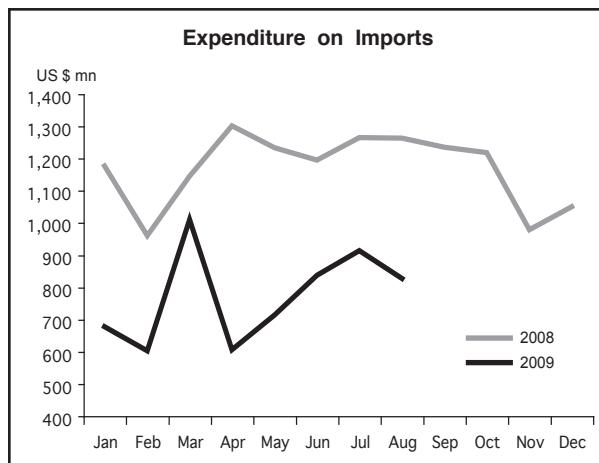

With respect to agricultural exports, the tea sector performed well, reflecting a year-on-year growth of 2.8 percent to US dollars 121 million in August 2009. Tea prices continued to fetch premium prices in the international market. The average export price of tea reached a record high of US dollars 4.34 per kilo in August 2009. However, agricultural exports, as a whole, which accounted for 23.7 per cent of total exports, declined by 7.4 per cent in August mainly due to the year-on-year declines in prices of rubber and most other agricultural products. Coconut exports too, declined in terms of prices as well as volumes, compared to August 2008. Although minor agricultural crop exports declined by 25.1 per cent in terms of export values (US dollars 25 million), they grew by 34.0 per cent in terms of volume, led by substantial increases in exports of cocoa products, sesame seeds and pepper. Mineral exports recorded a decline of 30.1 per cent, largely due to lower gem exports. Cumulative earnings from exports during the first eight months of 2009, declined by 17.2 per cent to US dollars 4,551 million compared to the corresponding period of 2008.

It is expected that exports will continue to increase during the remaining months of 2009 and in 2010, notwithstanding the uncertainties on the continuation of GSP+ concessions. With the deepening of global financial crisis, both the Euro and the Sterling Pound depreciated against many currencies. As a consequence, the Sri Lankan Rupee appreciated significantly against both, the Euro and the Sterling Pound, which peaked at around Rs.140 per Euro by end October 2008 and Rs.162 per Sterling Pound by end January 2009, respectively. Despite the sharp appreciation of the rupee against these currencies, Sri Lankan exporters were able to remain competitive in the EU market. The Sri Lanka Rupee has now depreciated sharply from the recent peak levels against the Euro and the Sterling Pound by around 18.5 per cent and 14.0 per cent respectively. According to the European Commission's estimate, the total value of benefits in terms of lower import duties under the GSP+ scheme for the year 2008 was Euro 78 million which is only 1.4 per cent of Sri Lanka's total exports in the same year. Therefore, the loss of preferential duty margin by around 6–7% arising from a potential withdrawal of the GSP plus facility is not expected to have an adverse impact on Sri Lanka's exports.

Expenditure on imports declined by 34.6 per cent to US dollars 826 million in August 2009, reflecting lower demand across all three major categories of imports. Further, except in the month of March, expenditure on imports in 2009 has been substantially below that of 2008.

Imports of intermediate goods declined by 38.5 per cent to US dollars 516 million, mainly due to the lower expenditure on imports of petroleum and fertilizer due to their lower prices. The average import price of crude oil declined by 47.2 per cent to US dollars 67.52 per barrel in August 2009, from US dollars 127.96 per barrel in August 2008. The average fertilizer import price has declined by 67.7 per cent to US dollars 344 per metric ton during this period. However, textile and clothing imports, which are used as inputs for apparel exports, increased by 7.7 per cent to US dollars 120 million in August, reflecting the potential growth in apparel exports in coming months. The imports of consumer goods declined by 21.9 per cent to US dollars 150 million, on account of lower commodity prices and lower import volumes. Imports of non-food consumer items have declined by 30.5 per cent to US dollars 56 million in August 2009 led by lower imports of motor vehicles and electrical equipment. Expenditure on investment goods has also declined by 30.8 per cent to US dollars 150 million in August 2009 reflecting declines in all sub categories. Cumulative expenditure on imports during the first eight months of 2009, declined by 35.2 per cent to US dollars 6,179 million compared to the corresponding period of 2008.

The gross official reserves, with and without Asian Clearing Union (ACU) funds, recorded US dollars 4,045.2 million and US dollars 3,890.1 million, respectively, by end August 2009. This includes short-term net inflows to the Government Treasury bills of US dollars 212.7 million and Treasury bonds of US dollars 797.5 million. Based on the previous 12 month average imports (US dollars 888 million per month), the gross official reserves, with and without Asian Clearing Union (ACU) funds, were equivalent to 4.6 and 4.4 months of imports, respectively.

By 13 October 2009, the gross official reserves, excluding ACU receipts, are provisionally estimated to have further improved to approximately US dollars 4,500 million. The significant growth in reserves was mainly due to the continuous absorption of foreign exchange by the Central Bank whereby from end March 2009 to 15 October, the CBSL has absorbed US dollars 2,529.3 million from the foreign exchange market.

The performance of external trade and remittances during the period is further illustrated in the following table.

6. Inflation in October 2009

The annual average inflation rate, as measured by the Colombo Consumer's Price Index (CCPI) (2002=100), computed by the Department of Census and Statistics, continued to decelerate since November, 2008 and reached the five year low of 5.2 per cent, compared to 6.6 per cent in the previous month. At the same time, the core inflation, which measures the price movement of non-food and non-energy items of the CCPI basket, further dropped in October, 2009.

The CCPI increased marginally by 0.4 per cent over the previous month, with the Index moving upward to 209.4 from 208.6 in September, 2009. The rate of inflation, on a year on year basis, increased marginally to 1.4 per cent in October, 2009 from 0.7 per cent in September, 2009. Meanwhile, the core inflation, on a point-to-point basis, decreased further to 5.1 per cent compared to 5.4 per cent in September, 2009 with the annual average rate also declining to 11.0 per cent from 12.1 per cent in the previous month.

(a) Daily wages represent payments in cash where meals are not provided by the employer. Annual and quarterly figures are averages of monthly figures.

Source: Central Bank of Sri Lanka

(b) Wages in the construction sector are paid on both daily payment and contractual basis. The series on contractual basis in previous bulletin publications has been replaced by the series on daily payment basis from the monthly bulletin of December 2005 onwards for comparison with wages in other sectors.

(c) Daily wages up to December 2004 are the average of daily wages for the two activities. From January 2005 onwards the daily wages cover both activities under a single category following the restructuring of data collection schedules.

(a) A series with a wide coverage and 1997 as the base year. In order to accommodate the variability arising from a monthly frequency, in computing the monthly trade indices, first the volume index is computed as a Laspeyres index and then the unit value index is derived as the ratio between the value index and the volume index. This methodology avoids the subjective imputation of prices that would be required in deriving a price index first when certain items are not exported or imported in a particular month.

(a) A series with a wide coverage and 1997 as the base year. In order to accommodate the variability arising from a monthly frequency, in computing the monthly trade indices, first the volume index is computed as a Laspeyres index and then the unit value index is derived as the ratio between the value index and the volume index. This methodology avoids the subjective imputation of prices that would be required in deriving a price index first when certain items are not exported or imported in a particular month.

In order to accommodate the variability arising from a monthly frequency, in computing the monthly trade indices, first the volume index is computed as a Laspeyres index and then the unit value index is derived as the ratio between the value index and the volume index. This methodology avoids the subjective imputation of prices that would be required in deriving a price index first when certain items are not exported or imported in a particular month.

(a) Annualized Forward Premium ( $f^d$ ) is computed using the following formula.

Source: Central Bank of Sri Lanka

$$f^d = \{[F_t^{t+1} - S_t]/S_t\} * 100 * (12/t)$$

Where  $F_t^{t+1}$  is the forward rate for period  $t+1$  that exists in period  $t$  and  $S_t$  is the interbank spot rate at period  $t$ .

(iv) to include rupee deposits of customers outside Sri Lanka as foreign liabilities (This reduces the net external assets of the commercial banks by Rs.1,744 million at end August 2009).

Column 6 – Net credit to the Government by the Central bank includes cash item in process of collection (Rs.0 at end August 2009) but excludes the Central Bank's assets on special advances given to the government on account of obligations to the IMF which had been shown in the CBSL balance sheet until September 2002.

Column 16 – Adjusted for cash items in process of collection (Rs.0 at end August 2009) and special advances given by the Central Bank to the government on account of IMF obligations. The amount of special advances was removed from the CBSL's balance sheet since October 2002 to be compatible with the accounting treatment of IMF quota under International Accounting Standards.

(a) This monetary survey is based on the aggregated data pertaining to both Domestic Banking Units (DBUs) and Offshore Banking Units (OBUs) of banks operating in Sri Lanka. Definitional changes have been adopted in aggregating DBUs and OBUs data to avoid double counting and misclassification of assets and liabilities. The major changes are:

- (1) All DBU placements in OBUs are recorded as domestic assets, while all DBU borrowings from OBUs are recorded as domestic liabilities.
- (2) Foreign currency deposits of DBUs are classified on the basis of ownership rather than on the basis of currency. Hence, the following apply :
  - (i) One half (50 per cent) of NRFC deposits are treated as domestic deposit liabilities;
  - (ii) All RNNFC balances are treated as foreign liabilities;
  - (iii) All other domestic foreign currency accounts are treated as domestic deposit liabilities.

(b) External assets (net) of the Central Bank and commercial banks (including outward bills).

(c) Currency and demand deposits of the public.

(d) Time and savings deposits of the public held with commercial banks.

(a) This financial survey is based on the aggregate data pertaining to Domestic Banking Units (DBUs), Foreign Currency Banking Units (FCBUs), Licensed Specialised Banks (LSBs) and Finance Companies (FINCOs) operating in Sri Lanka. Definitional changes have been adopted in aggregating DBU, FCBUs, LSBs and FINCOs data to avoid double counting and misclassification of assets and liabilities. The major changes are:

- (1) All DBU placements in FCBUs are recorded as domestic assets, while all DBU borrowings from FCBUs are recorded as domestic liabilities.
- (2) Foreign currency deposits of DBUs are classified on the basis of ownership rather than on the basis of currency. Hence, the following apply:
  - (i) One half (50 per cent) of NRFC deposits are treated as domestic deposit liabilities;
  - (ii) All RNNFC balances are treated as foreign liabilities;
  - (iii) All other domestic foreign currency accounts are treated as domestic deposit liabilities.

(b) External assets (net) of the Central Bank, Commercial banks (including outward bills), LSBs and FINCOs.

(c) Currency, demand deposits and quasi money in DBUs in this table differ from those in table 52 due to the fact that LSBs and FINCOs are not treated as public under this broad monetary survey (M<sub>4</sub>) definition.

(d) Time and savings deposits of the private sector with commercial banks, LSBs and FINCOs.

(e) Credit extended by the monetary authority, DBUs, LSBs and FINCOs to the Government, net of Government deposits with banks and Government cash deposits.

(a) Under Sections 10c, 93, 94, 96 and 97 of the amended Monetary Law Act (Chapter 422), commercial banks and other financial institutions are required to maintain reserves against their deposit liabilities as prescribed by the Monetary Board. Currently, only commercial banks are subject to reserve requirements. With effect from 24 January 1992, an amount of till cash over and above two per centum of the total deposit liabilities, but not exceeding four per centum, could be maintained as a part of required reserves in the form of Sri Lanka currency notes and coins. Details of required reserve ratios, which were applicable in the past and computational methods have been published in the Appendix table on the 'Reserve Position of Commercial Banks' in the Annual Reports prior to 2003.

(b) Reserve data are for the last reserve week of each month. The required reserves recorded in the table refer to the cumulative reserves for the week, while commercial bank deposits with the Central Bank are the cumulative deposits for that particular reserve week. - (1) Commercial banks charge a variety of fees and commissions on their services. The table gives a range of the maximum and minimum fees and commissions which are based on the information provided by commercial banks. These charges, which do not change very frequently are published semi-annually to enable the public to negotiate best terms. These fees and commissions could be different when services and products are provided as a package.
- (2) These are standard charges of commercial banks. However, charges for some specific products could include charges payable to banks abroad. For example, banks in Sri Lanka may include in their charges fees payable to banks abroad such as for adding confirmation to Letters of Credit, and for correction of discrepancies.
- (3) In the case of Documentary Credits, the charges for outward transmission from Sri Lanka would differ, on the mode of transmission used.
- (4) Loan application processing fees vary according to the loan amount.
