

Weekly Economic Indicators

04th January 2019

Highlights of the Week

Real Sector

CCPI Inflation declined to 2.8% in December 2018.

The year-on-year CCPI headline inflation declined to 2.8 per cent in December 2018 from 3.3 per cent recorded in November 2018. The change in the CCPI measured on an annual average basis declined to 4.3 per cent in December 2018 from 4.6 per cent in November 2018. The month on month change of the CCPI increased by 0.1 per cent in December 2018 due to increase in the prices of the items in Food category. The CCPI Core inflation decreased to 3.1 per cent in December 2018 from 3.4 per cent in November 2018 on year-on-year basis.

During the period, crude oil prices followed a mixed performance. At the beginning of the period crude oil prices fell over growing worries about a supply glut and mixed signals related to renewed US sanctions on Iran. However, prices subsequently rose supported by the supply cuts announced late last year by the OPEC, to cut the supply by 1.2 million barrels per day in 2019. Overall, both Brent and WTI prices rose by US$ 2.3 per barrel and US$ 1.4 per barrel, respectively, within the period.

Labour Force Participation Rate increased to 51.8% in 2018 Q3.

Unemployment Rate decreased to 4.1% in 2018 Q3 while the youth unemployment reached 19.6%.

During the first eleven months of the year 2018, domestic tea production reported a decline mainly due to the effect of declining auction prices and adverse weather conditions. Production of rubber also declined considerably due to lower auction prices. With coconut production recovering since April 2018 from the lagged effect of adverse weather conditions, overall production became positive during the first eleven months of the year.

Monetary Sector

Weekly AWPR for the week ending 04 January 2019 decreased by 17 bps to 11.92% compared to the previous week.

The reserve money decreased compared to the previous week mainly due to decrease in currency in circulation and deposits held by the commercial banks.

The total outstanding market liquidity increased to a deficit of Rs. 166.13 bn by end of the week, compared to a deficit of Rs. 171.43 bn by the end of last week.

By 04 January 2019, the All Share Price Index (ASPI) increased by 0.87% to 6,067.7 points and the S&P SL 20 Index decreased by 0.31 to 3,105.8 points, compared to the previous week

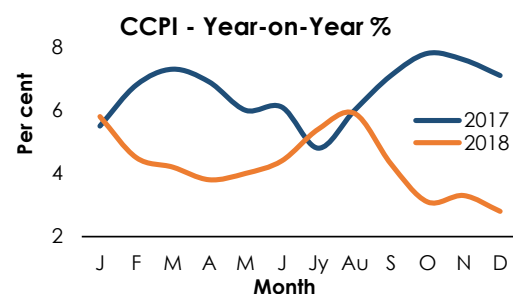

External Sector

During the year up to 04 January 2019 the Sri Lanka rupee depreciated against the US dollar (0.1 per cent). Given the cross currency exchange rate movements, the Sri Lanka rupee depreciated against the Japanese yen (2.2 per cent) while the Sri Lanka rupee appreciated against the euro (0.2 per cent), pound sterling (0.3 per cent), and the Indian rupee (0.2 per cent) during this period.

(a) Please note that crude oil prices are based on futures prices instead of spot prices, that have been published up to end 2017.

(*) CPC import prices are not directly comparable with futures prices of WTI and Brent as CPC's import prices include freight charges and the price is weighted for average prices of different types of crude oil. Also part of the imports of CPC are on a term contract basis.
