Real Sector & Inflation

Inflation, as measured by the change in the Colombo Consumers' Price Index (CCPI) (2006/07=100), which is computed by the Department of Census and Statistics, increased to 3.2 per cent in January 2015 from 2.1 per cent in December 2014 on a year-on-year basis, as a result of the increase in food prices. Annual average inflation declined marginally from 3.3 per cent recorded in December 2014 to 3.2 per cent in January 2015. Core inflation, which reflects the underlying inflation in the economy, declined slightly from 3.2 per cent in December 2014 to 3.1 per cent in January 2015 on a year-on-year basis. Annual average core inflation during January 2015 was 3.4 per cent, compared to 3.5 per cent recorded in December 2014.

The economy continued its growth momentum by recording a 7.7 per cent growth in real terms during the third quarter of 2014, supported by the 12.6 per cent growth of the Industry sector and 7.0 per cent growth of the Services sector, albeit the Agriculture Sector contracted by 2.0 percent.

While the production of tea recorded an increase of 0.9 per cent during January to November 2014, the rubber production showed a decline of 20.4 per cent during the same period. Meanwhile, the coconut production recorded an increase of 12.4 per cent during January to October 2014.

The FIPI has recorded 4.6 per cent year-on-year growth in October 2014. This growth was mainly facilitated by increased production of beverages, wearing apparel as well as rubber and plastic products sectors.

During the week crude oil spot prices showed mixed performance. Price declines were mainly due to firmer dollar and well supplied market. U.S. Energy Information Administration reported crude stocks rose by 8.9 million barrels last week surpassing analysts' expectations for an increase of 4.1 million barrels. Price increases were supported after OPEC Secretary General said oil prices may have hit a floor and could move higher very soon. He warned of a risk of a future price spike to $200 a barrel, if investment in new supply capacity is too low. However, Goldman Sachs' chief commodity analyst said prices will stay lower for longer, arguing that demand growth in China and other emerging economies is set to slow. Further, Barclays slashed its 2015 Brent oil forecast to $44 a barrel from $72 a barrel, while Goldman Sachs expected prices for WTI crude to trade close to $40 a barrel for most of the first half of 2015. Price increase of WTI crude oil at the end of the week was supported after U.S. data showed weekly jobless claims sharply fell to near 15-year low, indicating further strength in the U.S.

During the year so far (up to 30 January 2015) the rupee depreciated against the US dollar (0.87 per cent). Given the cross currency exchange rate movements, the Sri Lanka rupee appreciated against the euro (6.42 per cent), pound sterling (2.35 per cent) and depreciated against the Japanese yen (2.01 per cent) and the Indian rupee (3.41 per cent) during this period.

Earnings from exports declined by 10.7 per cent, year-on-year, in November 2014 to US dollars 921 million, mainly due to the substantial growth in export earnings recorded in November 2013. The largest contribution to the decline in exports in November 2014 was from the industrial exports followed by agricultural exports. However, on a cumulative basis export earnings increased by 7.5 per cent to US dollars 10,108 million during the first eleven months of 2014. Major export destinations during January to November 2014 continued to be USA, UK, Italy, India and Germany accounting for around 50 per cent of total exports.

Expenditure on imports increased moderately by 4.8 per cent to US dollars 1,645 million in November 2014, while on a cumulative basis, imports grew by 7.1 per cent to US dollars 17,618 million during the first eleven months of 2014. The increase in import expenditure in November 2014 was mainly led by imports of consumer goods with significant increase in imports of personal vehicles such as motor cycles and motor cars as well as rice imports. During the first eleven months of 2014, the main import origins were India, China, UAE, Singapore and Japan accounting for about 59 per cent of total imports.

The significant increase in export prices over the decline in import prices resulted to improve the terms of trade in October 2014. Export price index increased by 18.7 per cent year-on-year to 104.9 index points, reflecting a significant price increase in industrial export category despite the decline in export prices of all other sub categories.

Accordingly, the terms of trade index improved significantly by 19.0 per cent to 98.0 index points in October 2014 from to 82.3 index points in October 2013.

India, UK, China, Germany and Maldives were the top five sources of tourist arrivals upto December 2014, accounting for 46.1 per cent of total tourist arrivals during the year upto December 2014.

The average price of tea declined to US dollars 3.08 per kg (in the Colombo auction) in November 2014 from US dollars 3.44 per kg in October 2014 and US dollars 3.72 in November 2013.
